As folks nibbled away, I asked if anyone could guess the secret ingredient in these brownies." --FOOD GAL "King is the woman behind Tate's Bake Shop, the award-winning Southampton bakery approved by gourmands and the Hamptons' rich and famous." --NEWARK STAR LEDGER "I love this cookbook and I think you would love it too! It is perfect for the beginner baker and the more experienced professional. Wonderful gift to yourself or give it as a gift" [this cookbook is a real winner!]" --TWO CLASSY CHICKS "Baking for Friends" is a lot of fun." --NEWTON DAILY NEWS "Oh, Kathleen King's cookies are so crispy, the perfect mixture of sweet and savory, how we love them so." --BERGEN MAMA "This book will keep you dreaming and salivating beyond the holidays." --MODESTO BEE "Her scrumptious treats, now a foodie favorite sold from her bakery, Tate's Bake Shop in the Hamptons, still retain that handcrafted, homemade quality. The Ava Gardner of the cookie world, they're earthy and exceptionally seductive at the same time." --TRADITIONAL HOME "Kathleen King is beloved in the Hamptons for her glorious bakery filled with scrumptious earthy treats. This book invites us into her kitchen to learn the secrets that make Tate's Bake Shop so special. Kathleen understands that the pleasure is not just about creating amazing desserts but also about sharing them with people you love." • "INA GARTEN "I don't do a lot of baking" that's why I am such a fan of Tate's. My husband's favorite sweet treat is the Whole Wheat Dark Chocolate cookies. Tate's is great! I'm going to try my hand at a couple of these recipes, probably be too embarrassed to take a photo of them." • "RACHAEL RAY

“Kathleen brings simplicity and grace to everything she bakes. The recipes in this book are utterly delicious and easy to make. I know you will return to many of them time and time again” just like an old friend. • “SARABETH LEVINE”

Kathleen King is the founder of the Hamptons' premier bakery, Tate's Bake Shop, and the creator of America's #1 chocolate chip cookie, according to Everyday With Rachael Ray Magazine. Born and raised on her family's Long Island farmstead, Kathleen began baking and selling her signature handcrafted desserts off of a fold-out card table at age eleven. Now, with distribution into over 5,000 gourmet & specialty retailers across the country, Tate's Bake Shop's line of all-natural baked goods has garnered the attention of the nation and earned Kathleen the praise of The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, Food & Wine Magazine, and Newsweek, to name just a few. Kathleen has appeared on FoxNY's "Good Day New York," Food Network's "Barefoot Contessa" with Ina Garten, Plum TV's "Live What You Love," and CNBC's "The Big Idea with Donnie Deutsch" & "How I Made My Millions." In 2011, Kathleen won the Gold sofi Award, the top honor in the baking industry.

Well confess I collect cookbooks..now I read them after years of midnight cookie panics from one of my kids..5 dozen for tomorrow ordered at bedtime! I could easily be a cookbook critic and know pictures sure sell a lot of mediocre cookbooks. I paid an outrageous amount for Kathleen's Cookies...eye watering but worth it. My chocolate chip cookies are the same as hers...the Better Homes and Gardens book from 1965 is a gem. What I like about her books is the experience since age 11...I started young too. After time you can do them in your sleep...her recipes are melt in your mouth, not merely sweet. Many of these recipes came from the 50's and 60's when food was still food and flavor lit up eyes around the table. This last book had two recipes I wanted...Cherry Chip Cake and Pecan Shortbread..and they are spot on. The book has 7 chapters, 1 muffins, scones, shortcakes 2 tea loaves and quick breads. 3 pies, tarts, crisps 4 cookies. 5 party cakes , cupcakes. 6 health and lifestyle baked goods and 7 icings, frostings,and sauces. Pecan shortbread melts in your mouth with taste of roasted pecans...oooooo. Chocolate Key Lime Pie...the combination is addictive. Irish Soda Bread muffins...brilliant idea for St Patrick's day...no cutting required. Maraschino Cherry Chip Cake...some things are just required if you love those red kiddie drink things..Shirley Temple addicts. There is s recipe from a friend's Mom called Flour Icing that tastes like Marshmellow but no Fluff in sight. Maple Bacon Date scones...can smell them from upstairs and brings them running. Kathleen built a million dollar business because she loved to bake and learned from anyone who made something that tasted good. I read she sold the business last year with 200 employees and it has gone international. The buyers are keeping it smart and the cookies still taste good..the recipe for the original Choc Chip is in the first two books...this one has the chubby version as she calls them...thicker and probably taste same just thicker and chewy. The woman knows how to bake...any or all of her books are worth a spot on your shelf..direct clear recipes and brilliant results. Thank You Kathleen for all these yummy recipes!

Easy reading book. Easy instructions, very informative info for other cooking projects. Cooked the Lemon Pound Cake, was a huge hit. Will not change anything about the recipe.

Kathleen King's recipes always deliver. There are definitely recipes from this book I look forward to trying. If you love pies then you'll have a varied collection to choose from. The health & lifestyle chapter is a bit measley. My greatest disappointment with this book is the chocolate chip cookie recipe. I chose to buy Baking with Friends thinking that she had repeated the recipe from her earlier one in this new book. But alas, she shared the "Chubby Tate" recipe in the new book and I am a complete addict of the thinner ones. So now I have both books. Both this and Tate's Bake Shop Cookbook have chocolate chip cookies on their front cover so don't be deceived.
