Customer Reviews

Susan Curtis, owner of the school, is a member of the International Association of Culinary Professionals and of Les Dame d'Escoffier.

Many of the recipes specify SFCS proprietary seasoning blends which you can order. Experienced southwestern cooks can use their imagination for how much salt, chili powder, garlic powder, cumin, etc to use but a novice is going to struggle with this book. The mole recipe is great, although a little on the sweet side. Next time, I will eliminate one of the fruits.

If you love southwestern food, you will love the recipes in this book. Beautiful photos of the foods and well written.

I like this one much better than the other two volumes I have. These seem a little more down to earth than some of their others.

Great cookbook that celebrates the flavors and dishes unique to New Mexico.

Great Recipes!

Once again, the Santa Fe School delivers a first-class cookbook.

Everything is great.

Big fan of SW cooking and Santa Fe.
