Customer Reviews

Striking primitive illustrations aid in the retelling of this African folktale about the consequences of an overwhelming visit from Water and his people. Ages 4-8. Copyright 1990 Reed Business Information, Inc. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

"An African folktale is interpreted with originality and harmony." -- Review "An African folktale is interpreted with originality and harmony." (Booklist, ALA)

Very entertaining!

Childhood favorite of mine and my 5 year old loves this story too. The colors are gorgeous, the writing is superb. It's an easy, fun book to introduce origin stories to kids.

Great book.

This was an adventure which took a different turn with the kids. The questions they asked!

Loved the story Loved the illustrations.

Great

My grandkids love this book!! It is a delightful little tale, and they request it often. I will keep it on my list of gifts for other children. Makes a great gift.

Love the stories from other lands for the kids..
