Customer Reviews

Planning for a trip to china? this would be a great book for you. All of the things, tips and guides that anyone need to know for planning a trip to china including the major cities, traditions, sights, must do activities, hotels, restaurants are already included and well written inside. world wide travelers publishing has done an incredible job in compiling and creating this book. Worth a recommendation.

Cool! Nice compact guide, encompassing major places and sights to see when travelling to the magic city of Beijing. We are getting ready for a monthly trip across south Asia.And China, so I am using his guide in making the travel route. And I am so excited to get the chance to see the great Chinese wall and the Bird nest stadium in Beijing where my favorite athlete won his Olympic gold. I'm short, the guide is pretty nice, though it can't be regarded as the only travel guide for Beijing.

Weather - summer and how men should dress fur it. Ummm Okay, I'm going in January and I'm not a man. Sowhat little information there is, it is useless to me.Nice summaries of top sites to see.There are much better books on Beijing. Yes, they are probably more expensive. You get what you pay for. This is like the cliffs notes version, written by someone aiming for a C grade.

This book made my life easier, on my trip to Beijing. It is a smaller book than all the other tourist guides in Beijing, but has it all. The guide has all the basics you need on what sites to see and where to try eating. Bought two others in Hong Kong and Bangkok and they got me to all the top sites and helped me identify some great spots off the beaten track - highly recommend.

This is such an extremely helpful and useful book. This guidebook is perfect because I will be visiting all three cities included! Very in-depth information that goes into not only the tourist attractions and sites, but also the regional, political, religious, linguistic, and socioeconomic history. It has great in-depth information on what to visit and why. Highly recommended!

General info on Beijing, where to eat, what to do and much more! If you are planning a holiday to China, this book will be of great help. It is like your personal tour guide in and around Beijing. I will definitely make use of it in the near future myself.

I read the book and share experiences. Very useful book for me. The headings are also nice and witty. It makes the reader want to really read more from each chapter. Thanks to the author!

This book made my life less demanding, on my outing to Beijing. It is a littler book than the various vacationer controls in Beijing, however has it all. The guide has every one of the fundamentals you require on what destinations to see and where to take a stab at eating. Purchased two others in Hong Kong and Bangkok and they got me to all the best locales and helped me recognize some awesome spots off the beaten track - exceedingly prescribe.
