We lived Venice but the book was only so-so. The vaporetto map was wrong, and as it concerned the line to Burano it was a serious error. Also, the restaurant recommendations were sparse, and too many were wine bars and not enough just restaurants. A detail on the basilica was also wrong--the way to the upper levels is just to the right at the entrance, not from the treasury. We did enjoy a day trip to Padua to see the Giotto frescoes, and that information was helpful. Overall ok but should have been better fact-checked, especially as we got it when it was first published.

Good stuff

The map that was supposed to be included was ripped out. I guess I have to buy a map now.

Did not learn anything new. This is a very basic guide for the first timer with little time leaving for Venice soon. perfect guide.

Very helpful!

A nice concise description of sights, lodging and restaurants in an easy to carry size.

This book was useful for our trip. We booked some of the recommended tours, they were great. We really liked the laminated separate map in the back of the guide that had the recommended restaurants pinned. Venice can be hard to navigate (and harder to find decent food), the map made this much easier.
