What I was hoping for but too many full pages of just photos.....would like more recipes and more photos of said recipes rather than photos of green fields and such. But, overall, ok. The size is large, too.....just fits in my cupboard. A smaller book would be better.

Gave this as a Xmas gift to my friend who has Irish roots and she loved it! Great recipes every Irish Rose would want to prepare with slick photos and a little bit of folklore mixed in.

Great tasteing dishes. Each dish is explained and easy to prepare. I never knew Irish cooking could taste this good.

Nicely done and good pix! I have wanted a cookbooklike this and have found one! Not very thick though but well worth the money!

Item arrived on time, and it's a good cookbook. The recipes all have pictures, and the book, itself, was well made. Recommended!

I very much enjoyed seeing the recipe ingredients that were what my Mom used including the various herbs that made the so delicious. Naturally, she was the best cook in the world! I will definitely now be trying some of these recipes myself. Looking forward to our planned trip to Ireland to look up relatives there, and visit the pubs.

This is a beautiful book for a cookbook, almost coffee-table lovely. In addition to the recipes, there are lots of really wonderful pictures of Ireland in the book. I bought the cookbook as a present for my daughter, who had taken a seminar tour of Ireland during college. She was delighted with it.

This cookbook caught my attention in a book store, so I ordered it from . It's really lovely. It came in good time, was well packaged and in excellent condition. I've made several recipes so far with good results. It's hard for me to tell how close to Irish cooking it is, but good enough for me!
