Customer Reviews

Just about every character you can think of - 1000 characters fall under the umbrellas: corporation, government, military, criminal, independent and alien/outcast. Special attention is given to the 1001st character at the end of the book. A flood of contexts and characters additionally provide useful campaign ideas. I was able to flesh out an underground conspiracy, using a sample drug-pushing, brain-washing religious zealot. Includes a lot of creativity you won't be able to muster on your own. Great for lazy referees who don't want to sacrifice richness of detail in a campaign. Nice touches include descriptive text and subtitles accompanying each character. Aside from the final page, the same level of detail is given to all 1000 characters - no tiers providing extra levels of interest for select NPCs. Minus one star for not specifically providing mission-giving contact NPCs (what's there is useful, but could be better).
