Customer Reviews

'The answer to every short-breaker's dream. The jewel-coloured guides look beautiful and are exquisitely designed.' The Times 'Gorgeous photography, sharp graphics, and design-savvy, waffle-free text, written by city insiders rather than bearded backpackers.' The Independent 'Glamorous, global and affordable.' Telegraph magazine 'Packed with insider knowledge and eye-catching photography.' Vogue 'Ultra-glam, uber-chic' The Observer 'Attractive and well-researched.' USA Today 'Ultra-stylish.' Time Magazine 'Sophisticated but simple.' The New York Times 'Small, stylish and beautifully illustrated, the Wallpaper* City Guides make everything else look old hat. ... The photographs and maps are superb.' The Sydney Magazine

Wallpaper* City Guides are compiled by the magazine's travel experts, both by in-house editors, and correspondents who actually live in the highlighted cities, providing up-to-the-minute information.

I grabbed one of these along with some other books to help plan my trip and take with me on a backpacking trip which includes Latvia. This book is completely useless for planning as it provides next to no information. What this book basically is is a lot of artistic photographs of the inside of hotel rooms, cafes, bowling alleys and a few other places. There's also some outside shots of these and other buildings, granted a couple of things you might actually stop and photograph yourself if walking by. There's a bit of information on each but with much of the text you'll be thinking, who cares about that. I really don't know what the point of the Wallpaper City Guide is, is it supposed to be an artist brochure type thing or a travel guide. As a travel guide to Riga, it's pathetic, has a very basic colour map on the back page where they haven't even bothered to write the names of anything other than the major streets in, you know there's streets there as there are white rectangle representing them but not much help if your looking for somewhere. Instead get the books Estonia Latvia & Lithuania \(Lonely Planet\) for information, and Travellers Latvia \(Travellers - Thomas Cook\) for photos and a bit of information.
