Customer Reviews

After reading a book about positive thinking, I grabbed this too and the results of readings is really great and am motivated to face my fears much more than ever before. I have benefited in knowing how to handle any situation whether at work or at home in a confident and professional way while preventing any damage that can be result from poor approach.

I admit that I don't have enough self-confidence and I want to boost or improve it so that I can overcome every trial in life with confidence. I did a researched on how to improve my self-confidence and I got this book now. I learned lots of tips in this book that I never read over the internet. I think this book is written based on real experience. I learned to live life wholeheartedly and this is the important part to me.

I am extremely grateful for this book. I believe I can take what I have learned and apply it to my real life.

Let me share my favorite line in this book, "Self-confidence is a statement that defines not only you, but also your life." That specific line in the introduction made me continue reading the book up to its very last page. I admit that I needed this to boost my confidence and of course, it would also be good for anybody else. The definition helped me a lot to understand what true self-confidence is. I realized that as long as I am happy and confident, regardless of the situation, I know that I can overcome anything. I strongly recommend taking time to read and ponder on the 7 questions and answers that will take you to self-confidence laid out by the author. These are great tips in building self-confidence to the point where you can face anything that life presents.

Nicely-written tips for building confidence as the foundation for a good quality of life.

This book is very helpful and good for those who are having trouble with boosting self-confidence. I noticed that the writer has a strong persuasive style writing. It's normal to feel negativity; however, I agree with the author's tip to stay positive all the time. It may sound unrealistic, but there are valuable reasons listed in this book. It will help anyone who is having problems with decision-making. Help and love yourself by reading this book and maybe this will help you in becoming more successful in the nearest future.

Just when you think you know everything about having confidence this book will educate you even more. Having self-confidence not only boosts your self-esteem but makes you a better person overall. Everything from your professional life to social life will benefit from having self confidence. This book is short but packed with enough information to give you a kick start in the right direction of turning your life around. I highly recommend this book to anyone willing to make that change.

I admit that I have low self-confidence. In every decision I made I doubted myself if I can do such things. I tried to boost my self-confidence on what other telling me but still nothing happens. This time I tried to research on my own until I came up with this book. This book helped me discover who really I am. This book boosts my confidence in every tips and advices I read. I am inspired to do everything with confidence now. Thank you so much for this book!
