Susan Branch is the author of thirteen (now fourteen, almost fifteen) books with over four million copies in print ~ all of them hand-written and watercolored, filled with quotes, recipes, tips, stories and personal mementoes. Susan's "Heart of the Home" books and blog celebrate the home arts of cooking, gardening, homemaking, family, best friends, entertaining, and all the things that make life sweet. Susan was born in Southern California as the oldest of eight children, and now lives with her husband Joe Hall in an 1849 home on the Massachusetts Island of Martha's Vineyard ~ which she refers to as her "heart magnet." Susan was drawn to New England since childhood and loved it before she ever saw it. She finally moved there in her early 30s, no longer "able to live without four seasons and white picket fences as everyday architecture."

Ã ª This is the second year I have ordered Susan Branch's desk calendar and I absolutely love it. The artwork is quaint and cheerful. Each page is made of nice thick paper. The calendar boxes are big enough to write in. There is a nice space for notes and in the corner there is a 12 month calendar, which I really like instead of just having the month before and after listed. I am not a super artsy-crafty person, but would love to use some of the artwork after finished with the calendar. If you have any ideas of what you could do, please post a comment below.

I love this calendar! I buy a new calendar every year to hang in my kitchen so I can keep track of my kids activities. This is by far my favorite. The paper is extra thick like cardstock. It is very well made. I would recommend this to anyone looking for something cute and fun. I love the quotes on each month. The border at the top is part of each individual page so it comes off clean.

I am a big fan of the artwork of Susan Branch and this blotter looks so pretty on my desk all year round. I keep track of birthdays and anniversaries on it while it protects my antique desktop.

You just can't beat the card stock quality paper these are made with. So that means no rolling corners and ink bleeds. The pages still look good when the next month rolls around. Very pleased!

Love this calendar, it's perfect to have in front of me when I'm super busy and need to know just what I'm doing day to day. It's whimsical, so it gives me pleasure in seeing what each months artistic presentation will bring me. I will be a continuous purchaser of this style calendar! Absolutely adorable and colorful!

Cute, very sturdy card stock, plenty of writing space! Love it!!

Great calendar - keeps the family organized - it is a wonderful on the counter - brings a smile to my face with the drawings and sayings. Susan Branch is a wonderful person for the way she creates joy and peace...

I love these. They are well made of heavy card stock, but I don't care about that. They protect my desk with a whimsical new design every month that makes me smile every time I walk into my office :) Perfect.
