Eleanor Miller loves being an assistant midwife in her small town. Even though she is only a helper to the full-time midwife, she still helps to bring life into the world, and soothe worried mothers. And so when she finds she must choose between her love of midwifery and her love for Gabriel Hurst, Eleanor feels as if her heart were torn in two. Gabriel is a good man, but Eleanor believes God would not have given her this skill without a reason. And though a wife is meant to respect her husband, she is not sure she can agree to his request. Must she give up one of the two things she loves best in the world, in order to keep the other? Or can she find a way to fit both loves into her life? But difficult as the road may be, fate has a plan for us, and love will have its day. Find out for just $0.99 or FREE on Kindle Unlimited
