SMOKY MOUNTAINS, OZARK AND BRANSON

Synopsis

About the book The author and his family had an opportunity to go on some of the most compelling long distance drives in America during summer time. Speed and agility of modern car and convenience of American roads made the trips comfortable. The book reveals some of the most picturesque sites and places visited by him. It explores natural beauty, scenery, history and geology of the American landscape from the eyes of a curious visitor. It also recounts the major routes of the journey. It should provide an interesting reading material for prospective tourists.
