This is a wonderful beginner's book about Baby Jesus. The book is easy for young children to understand, the illustrations are wonderful, and the pictures would appeal to different cultures.

Very sweet book!

This is beautifully illustrated. I highly recommend for infants and toddlers. My 3 and 1 year olds and I love it.

What an absolutely delightful board book for Christian toddlers! I read this to my grandson today for the first time, and then we read it again several times. He absolutely loved it. Little ones can easily understand this story told at their level, and the pictures in the book are colorful and bright. Here are a few lines from the book: "What did Baby Jesus do? Was he little just like you? Did he grow and learn to walk?" The story is short and not complicated--just perfect for toddlers. I'm sure you will want to own this one. It would make a perfect little gift for Christmas or any occasion.

The illustration and wording is really nice for reading with your children. It is really cute during Advent and Christmas because it shows manger, Wise Men, angels. That being said, we read it all year because it is not just christmasy- it shows Jesus's early life too. Highly recommend. Children enjoy it.

Short little children's book, wish it was a little longer. Great for helping them identify with baby Jesus. Nice rhyming pattern to help with memorization of the words.

I love reading this story to my two boys! It is written in words and concepts they can understand, and it almost brings a tear to mommy's eye when I think about it on a grown-up level. Would recommend it to anyone with babies or toddlers. Would make a GREAT shower gift!
