Customer Reviews

As the host of A Prairie Home Companion for over forty years, Garrison Keillor has captivated millions of listeners with his News from Lake Wobegon monologues. He has been honored with Grammy, ACE, and George Foster Peabody awards, the National Humanities Medal, and election to the American Academy of Arts and Letters.

If any American or Canadian cannot relate to these yarns, she or he has a hole where a heart ought to be -- as Dr. Seuss might say. Listen, maybe with mist in your eyes, and ease into a comfortable chair or hammock, with an iced tea [or whatever] in your hand. Go ahead, close your eyes, but don't fall asleep until the CD starts to replay. In short, enjoy reminiscing the life that you know is somewhere deep inside you.

My husband and I were introduced to Garrison Keillor's humor a good many years ago. My husband was a sales engineer (retired now) which required him to travel quite a lot. One day he happened to listen to Garrison addressing the Washington Press Club. My husband was laughing so much that he had tears in his eyes and couldn't see the road and had to pull off for safety reasons. We love "Tomato Butt", all the Rhubarb stories, etc. If or anyone else has the story about the uncle who prayed so long and cried, we would love to have it.

Great compilation of the Keller artistry.

Gave as a gift. Receiver seemed pleased.

Bought this for my mom who is still living in Minnesota. We both laughed so hard listening to each of the tracks. We can still relate to the stories from the early 1990s even though it's 2013!

I am a fan and like to listen to performances. The delivery is as good as the story line. Well done.

just such a fun entertaining way to sit and relax with a hot cup of cocoa and listen to stories that could be right from one's own hometown growing up .

very good cd, who doesn't love Garrison. Packaged well
