okay

I gave this to my 15 year old grandson who is a budding chef. I had seen it and the Batali boys on THE CHEW but had to wait several weeks before it was available. Grandson and I spent a wonderful day making home made pasta and then we had the family over and it was excellent.

The recipes look good, but we were disappointed in the lack of photos, particularly since this is geared towards kids.

I bought this book for my grandson, who at eleven, has a serious love for baking grand deserts and preparing outstanding entrees. We have worked together on a few dishes at his suggestion, and had a wonderful time doing so. Thanks Batoli Brothers!

This book is such fun to read. I have enjoyed their Dad's cooking for years. This book gave me such an insight to this wonderfully close family. The family that cooks together, stays together. Coudos to Mario and his wife Susie.

Too few recipes from the two kids themselves. The rest are rehash of the elder Batali. I should have returned the Kindle book.

I thought there would be more recipes from the boys, that kids could make (with some supervision of course). I see no need to pad the book with recipes from Mario.

These recipes are easy and delicious in the style of Batali children. There are few ingredients and simple instructions. I think it's a great book for adults and kids as they explain techniques in a child-like way.
