James W. Goll is a lover of Jesus who cofounded Encounters Network, an organization dedicated to changing lives and impacting nations by releasing God's presence through prophetic, intercessory, and compassionate ministry. He is the founder of the God Encounters Training School of the Heart—where faith and life meet." He is also International Director of Prayer Storm, a 24/7/365 media-based house of prayer. After serving as a pastor in the Midwest, James was thrust into the role of international itinerant teacher and trainer. He has traveled extensively in over fifty nations, carrying a passion for Jesus wherever he goes. James desires to see the body of Christ become the "house of prayer for all nations" (see Isaiah 56:7) and be empowered by the Holy Spirit to spread the good news to every nation and all peoples. James is a member of the Harvest International Ministry Apostolic Team and a consultant to several national and international ministries. He is also the author of numerous books and training manuals, as well as a contributing writer for several periodicals. James and Michal Ann Goll were married for thirty-two years before her graduation to heaven in the fall of 2008. They have four wonderful adult children, all of whom are married, and two grandchildren. James makes his home in Franklin, Tennessee.

Just what I needed for bible study

James Goll is one of my favorite teachers. He has a way of giving practical biblical instruction with practical application. His knowledge of not only the Word of God but also the Spirit of God allows him to explain the principles of the word and spirit that is so sensible you just get it. This book is not over your head if you are a beginner and a balanced look at spiritual gifts if you are more advanced. I would recommend this book and any book he has written. I have a shelf full of them and refer to them on a regular basis.

Reading this book I had no idea what Spiritual Gifts were and became fully engaged. I couldn't put it down. I remember the first time God spoke to me when I gave myself to him. I was nine years old in a small church in Kentucky. I was thinking back on this while reading. I feel that God gives us all a Spiritual Gift we just have to listen to his calling. On page 34 in the book he lists 25 Spiritual Gifts. I see that as a nurse God has given me many ways to share his word and gifts he has given me. I love how this book is layed out for the lay person to the advanced. Each chapter walks you through different aspects to understand and receive your gifts. This is a wonderful tool to have especially times when you may doubt your self or your gifts. Never loose faith because God never loses faith in us. I would recommend this book to anyone looking to strengthen their relationship to God and start to understand the gifts he has given. I recieved this book from The BookClub Network for an honest review.

Releasing Spiritual Gifts Today by James Goll is a very well written in-depth study of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. In this book, the author clearly explains the Gifts, which are given freely by God to believers. The book is filled with an abundance of examples of not only how the gifts were used in Biblical times, but are still valid and in use in our modern, contemporary world. Starting with a Introduction to Spiritual Gifts what they are, how the Holy Spirit moves and how to grow in exercising spiritual gifts the author explores all of the gifts of the Spirit broken into three categories The Revelatory Gifts, The Power Gifts and The Vocal Gifts. This is not a book to be read only once. This is a book that should be studied by believers to aid in uncovering and developing the Gifts bestowed on them in order to learn what they are and, as the title suggests, release them.

What a powerful book. I don't say this about many non-fiction books but this is one I couldn't put down. As I read I literally felt a fire in my gut burning with wanting more of the Holy Spirit. James discusses gifts that he believes are for everyone (and I personally agree) but I know this can cause controversy within the church. I don't attend a church that preaches this but I personally have come to believe many of the truths in this book. Why should we desire the gifts of the Spirit? On page 29 James tells us the overall purpose: "What it comes down to is that spiritual gifts are more about how much God wants to love other people through you than how much He loves you (even though He does, indeed, love you!). You are a channel of His grace. The gifts have been given to you so you can channel His love to someone else. Gifts are for giving away!"

Good stuff right there. If you desire more of the gifts of the Holy Spirit I encourage you to read this book and earnestly seek these gifts so you can love others more. A copy of this book was given to me by The Book Club Network Inc. in exchange for an honest review.

To understand spiritual gifts we must understand that they are not something you use when you are bored. They are to be used in our daily walk. God gives us these gifts to help others, and to work together as a body of Christ. I like how the author explains that we need to be seeking what gifts He has for us. It is important that the body of Christ use these gifts to operate together. This is a very in-depth study of the Gifts of The Holy Spirit and he does a great job of explaining them in layman's terms. He tells us to take risks and not just sit in a pew waiting for the perfect time to use your gifts. Do we sometimes worry what others might say if we start operating in our gifts? God doesn't want us to be fearful, He wants us to go out and spread His word. The book is a great tool to use for those who are just starting to operate in their gifts. It can also be used for those who are looking for more meaning and a richer understanding of The Holy Spirit. I liked how he broke the book down into sections and guided us through what each gift means and how to operate in them. Not all of us will have received the same gifts like teaching or discernment, but they are to be used together as one body. He raised a great question later in the book that I thought was so much needed an answer. There is not one gift more important than another one. "But the best gift is always going to be the one that is needed at the moment." I received a copy of this book from The BookClub Network for an honest review.
