Customer Reviews

This is the bargain of a clarinetist's lifetime. Enough music of sufficient depth to challenge your interpretive sensibility forever, and the 100% involvement of the pianist. The pianist must accept the challenge of sitting on the BIG DUDES' piano bench, not just come to a warm-up and expect to "accompany" his/her partner. The Brahms Sonatas are as much piano pieces with clarinet accompaniment as they are clarinet music. The Weber Variations call for agreement on how to phrase the theme --and how to carry that judgement into the variations --with soloistic challenges for both performers. I have 4 copies. My favorite is all marked up, yellowed and coming apart. 2 copies are missing the piano part --attrition of pianists unable to climb on Weber's piano bench.

Thankyou, it's brilliant, was looking to replace this for a long time, great price fast delivery A++++++

I needed a solo book and this has some major clarinet repertoire and it is also printed pretty clearly. Grand Duo Concertant by Weber is my personal favorite.

I received the book, but NO clarinet component

Did not include a separate part for clarinet and combined part was too hard to read.

Received, but does not have the clarinet part.

A collection of pieces for the intermediate clarinet player. The binding on the book is sturdy so I can't really complain.

The editions of the pieces are good, but the binding makes page-turns a nightmare, as is usually the case with this publisher. I did receive the music very quickly, though, and the price is very good.
