Customer Reviews

Really love it!

This music is beautiful and appropriate for intermediate players. I've mastered Red Rock Ridge, and I'm working on Sedona now.

Beautiful music , love itÃ¢ÂÂºÃ¢ÂÂ•

Laura SullivanÃ¢ÂÂÃ¢ÂÂs Ã¢ÂÂPiano Sheet Music CollectionÃ¢ÂÂ is a compilation of 15 of her favorite piano solos. I am an intermediate/advanced intermediate player and her music is a Ã¢ÂÂperfect fitÃ¢ÂÂ for my skill level, challenging but very playable. Her music has a

Ã¢Âœnew ageÃ¢Â• feel to it, and its meditative sound is very relaxing. This is a really nice collection of songs and it is fun to play. I highly recommend this book (perfect for the upcoming holidays!)

I love Laura's music and often spend days with it in the background whether I'm working or relaxing. After recently being reunited with my childhood piano, and not having played for over 18 years, it was my favorite, Pictograph Cave that made the reunion so special. The music is written with beautiful and eloquent simplicity - enough for someone like me to get back into playing, but still a pleasant challenge to try and master. Both contemporary and yet reminiscent of days past, the music is soothing and speaks to the soul. Did I say I love it?!?! I'm so glad to have the sheet music available to reconnect with my musical past in way that expresses me. Because I don't have a great mastery in music, I can't give you a technical review. However, as someone who played mostly by ear, and read music slowly, this has been manageable (with some challenges) and yet exhilarating to dabble with when I catch myself getting it right. And can I say that Laura responds to her own email!!! She's as authentic as her music. Can't say enough.

I'm a working musician, a pianist for over 50 years, a teacher. I was asked to play "Pachelbel for the Potomac" for a wedding recently, and purchased the music from Ms. Sullivan's website. This Sheet Music Collection is a lovely work! Ms. Sullivan has a gift for writing RH melodies that flow and breathe. (They may look a little daunting, but they fit underneath the hand well - scale passages, with just a little practice an intermediate player will have no trouble at all.) The challenge is in her rhythms - you're going to have to count! But the rhythms add energy and interest - you'll love them. Her LH accompaniments are very 1 - 5 - 1 based (octave with the 5th) but this could have been a deliberate choice on her part, to make the arrangements accessible to even early intermediate players. I like the triplets of "Porch Swing Night Romance", and I didn't think that I would like "Waltzing With Beethoven", since the Pathetique Sonata is one of my favorites to play, but it's now a favorite. This is an excellent set. You won't be disappointed!

About 7 years ago, I decided to get serious about playing the piano. I am 62 now and have been playing (practicing!) faithfully. My ability at memorization and technique is about intermediate to late intermediate and reading music is a bit below that. Although, I am not fond of most New Age music, Pictograph Cave was my favorite in this Collection. I had heard it on Pandora and was glad Laura had offered the sheet music for purchase. All of the music in this collection is very playable for a person at my skill level. Additionally, all the music is available for listening on YouTube...AND played by the composer, Laura Sullivan. This allows a valuable listening tool for the pianist to hear how she meant it to sound and much help for a less skilled pianist, as well. The Collection is of the New Age Genre, calming and relaxing. Listen to Laura play on YouTube to see which sheet music you would like to play. Have fun with your music, relax, and keep practicing!

Love this book! I first ran into Laura's work while listening to Pandora. Most of Laura's songs in this book are very peaceful and melodic. Some of them do have more flair and character than others. I personally like the more melodic ones, the kind of music that you'd think about when you hear the word "instrumental piano". My favorite song is still the one I stumbled upon through Pandora, titled "Pachelbel of the Potomac". It is an arrangement of the famous Canon in D by Pachelbel. There are lots of piano arrangements for that song out there, but this one is my favorite version by far. It's the kind of song that you'd walk down the aisle to if you're getting married. I consider myself an intermediate piano player and I'd say I can play most of the songs pretty comfortably. Overall, I highly recommend this book!
