Peter Jowett has been with Parks Canada, Warden Service since 1984. Prior to that he was an Alberta Provincial Ranger and a canoeing instructor/guide for the Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources. He has worked in six national parks and as of 1998 is stationed in Waterton Lakes National Park.

If you are planning to go to the Nahanni country for any reason you need to read this book. If you are a fan of Patterson this book is fun to read as a modern guide to the river so you can see the photos of the country Patterson did not include in "The Dangerous River". The book is a typical guide book and may be a little dry just to read for fun, but once again if you plan to go, get it. The author didn't write the book by looking at a map and reading a few stories, has been there and done it.
