A Family For Christmas: When A Tragic Accident Scars A Family, Will It Take A Miracle To Heal Them?

MAGGIE HARTLEY

A Family for Christmas

When a tragic accident
scars a family, will it take a miracle to heal them?

Synopsis

When foster carer Maggie Hartley meets Sean and Sheila, they're facing every parent's worst nightmare. A split-second decision to leave toddler Edward alone for a few short minutes results in a tragic accident, and Edward is left fighting for his life. He survives, but is tragically left severely brain damaged. Wracked with guilt, destroyed by blame and struggling to accept that their perfect toddler has gone, Sean and Sheila go to pieces. Maggie steps in to foster Edward while his parents battle with the unspoken fear that he may have to be adopted permanently if they cannot cope with their son's needs. Will Maggie be able to help this family grieve for the son they've lost and learn to love the little boy he is now? And will Edward have a family to go home to at Christmas?

Customer Reviews

Maggie Hartley is a talented foster carer, mother, empath and writer. She tells the story completely unbiased and really helps one understand each child she takes in. She is clever at finding the emotional nooks and crannies that need filling and gifted at devising a way to help the children and parents. I am a former foster child and hope one day to be a foster parent myself, especially as America has a deep need for carers who do it for the right reasons. Maggie Hartley is a great inspiration and teacher. She has become a personal heroine of mine. I think one would be hard pressed not to like Maggie or to enjoy her well written books.

Such a great little guy! Maggie has a great big heart and love for children. Without her efforts this child may still be in a foster home or an institution. Maggie sees past the negatives and works for the impossible. A good book for families that faces difficult times such as this. It can be an encouragement to faithfully do what is best for a handicapped child or person.

Edward is amazing, I am so happy he has beat the odds with love and help. I know without your support in this family he may not be where he is now. I wish I knew you personally Mags cause I truly love you for all you have done in this world.

Was a heartwarming story

This book shows how someone can overcome a disability! It shows that doctors don't always know what the outcome will be! This book also shows how someone can forgive themselves!

An amazing true story of love overcoming tragedy. It was a very inspiring read! I highly recommend this book! Excellent!

Awesome book. I would read it again And would recommend it ☺ ☺ ☺

I like these true story books and this a great author. A lot of these are quite short reads. Great!
